

Yesterday I sat with a dying man. He died today. The phone rang with a recording trying to sell him a TV dish. We don't pay for our phones for business to intrude on us. Keep Wisconsin's laws as strict as they are to protect us. Include cell phones too.

Pastor Schrankler